Says Ganghofer.

Manich, Feb. 3.—The "Noueste Nachrichten" has published an intersiew with Dr. Ludwig Ganghofer, the German author, in which is given a further account of the writer's visit to Emperor William at the imperial field meadquarters. Dr. Ganghofer says: "I heard and saw an example of the Emperor's quete patience with sinderous sitements that should ever when the instructive for us all. Remarks of such a mature embitter him, but even in his greatest excitement he never loses the mastery over his tongue. I heard him say in such a case: That is strong, but it is silly also. It is forturate that truth always is wiser in the leng run, and that it has longer legs. "The knightly conduct of individual opponents in the field gladdens Emperor William." continues Dr. Ganghofer, "and rarely have I heard any sun as peak so justify and appreciatively of the good qualities, the courage and the accomplishments of the nations enemies. Even against England I heard from the Emperor no unmeasured word speken in anger. The Alaunia would be perhaps the richest prize in merchandise and foodstuffs that the Germans could capture or destroy, but no uncertainty was felt at the Cunard pier yesterday regarding her ultimate arrival at Liverpool.

After leaving Halifax, it is said, she will steam under direction of the British Admiralty, and will most likely have as convoy a cruiser such as is believed to be going eastward with the Lusitania, which left nort Saturday. If necessary, the Alaunia will remain at Halifax until a substantial convoy is sent to meet her in mid-Atlantic.
